OCTOBER 2007 MEETING ISSUES

We are proud to finally announce that, as promised, the time for our annual pilgrimage to Walton County is here! We are looking forward to touring the new and improved Walton County Courthouse on October 18, 2007 (a reminder that this date is a departure from our normal second Thursday meetings). Judge Wells has graciously offered to show us around the new digs. In addition, there will be a catered reception at the courthouse and the Hotel DeFuniak bar will be available for anyone who cannot get enough of de' Funk after the meeting. For those interested in carpooling, please gather in the parking lot of the Shalimar office of Fleet, Spencer & Kilpatrick at 4:30.

All of you attorneys in Fort Walton Beach, Crestview, Niceville, Val-P, Destin, Shalimar and beyond, please make a special effort to join us. Something really exciting is likely to happen (exciting things do happen in DeFuniak Springs believe it or not) and, if you are not there, how will you ever forgive yourself?

THANK YOU

OWBA would like to thank Jim Ramminger for a great presentation on the Family Mediation Program last month!

IT'S BEGINNING TO LOOK A LOT LIKE CHRISTMAS (ALREADY)...

The Okaloosa Walton Legal Support Association (OWLSA) is sponsoring a Christmas greenery sale again this year to raise money for their scholarship and other activities. Orders must be placed by October 26, 2007. Prices include tax. Delivery will be during the first week of December. Checks should be made payable to OWLSA. Contact Fran Novak at 651-9944 if you have any questions.
